THE JPMORGAN COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY DATA SCIENCE INSTITUTE MASTER’S DIVERSITY FELLOWSHIP AWARD PROGRAM

We are pleased to offer fellowships for M.S. in Data Science students from historically underserved or underprivileged populations. Support is guaranteed for two semesters of full-time study, including full tuition, fees, and a stipend to cover living expenses in New York City. Fellows will also be invited to complete an internship with JPMorgan. Renewal for the third and final semester of the program is contingent on completing the internship. Prospective students must submit a 250 - 500 word reflection that provides insight into how their identity, life experiences, and perspective would advance diversity in the data science community as part of the admissions application.

(Please note: Applicants should be U.S. citizens or permanent residents)
